ONE TOWN AT A TIME

DISASTER CALLS

WHEN YOU LEAST EXPECT IT

In 2004, our founder Kimberly Goreham, was forced to flee her home in San Diego, California in the middle of the night, with a 50 foot wall of flames surrounding them. Driving for their lives down a two-lane highway with her young children in the back seat, Kimberly suddenly understood the importance of preparing for the unexpected. The fear and panic the family felt would have been minimized with an evacuation plan. Lives would have been saved that night with a little bit of advanced community planning and teamwork. This is the CORE of our WHY. We believe disasters don't have to hurt so much and preparation is the key. We're here to help, from the heart.

SERVICES

R

RESCUE

We work with local first responders & evacuation centers in extreme times of crisis. We train, coordinate, motivate & dispatch teams of professional volunteers who distribute essential supplies, operate trucks, heavy equipment, rescues & more. Consider us your extra set of hands.

RELIEF

Disaster Wellness Services provide complimentary chiropractic & massage treatments onsite, for First Responders working the event. We help to boost moral, prevent injuries & provide therapeutic human touch, sprinkled with kindness. We believe disasters don't have to hurt so much.

R

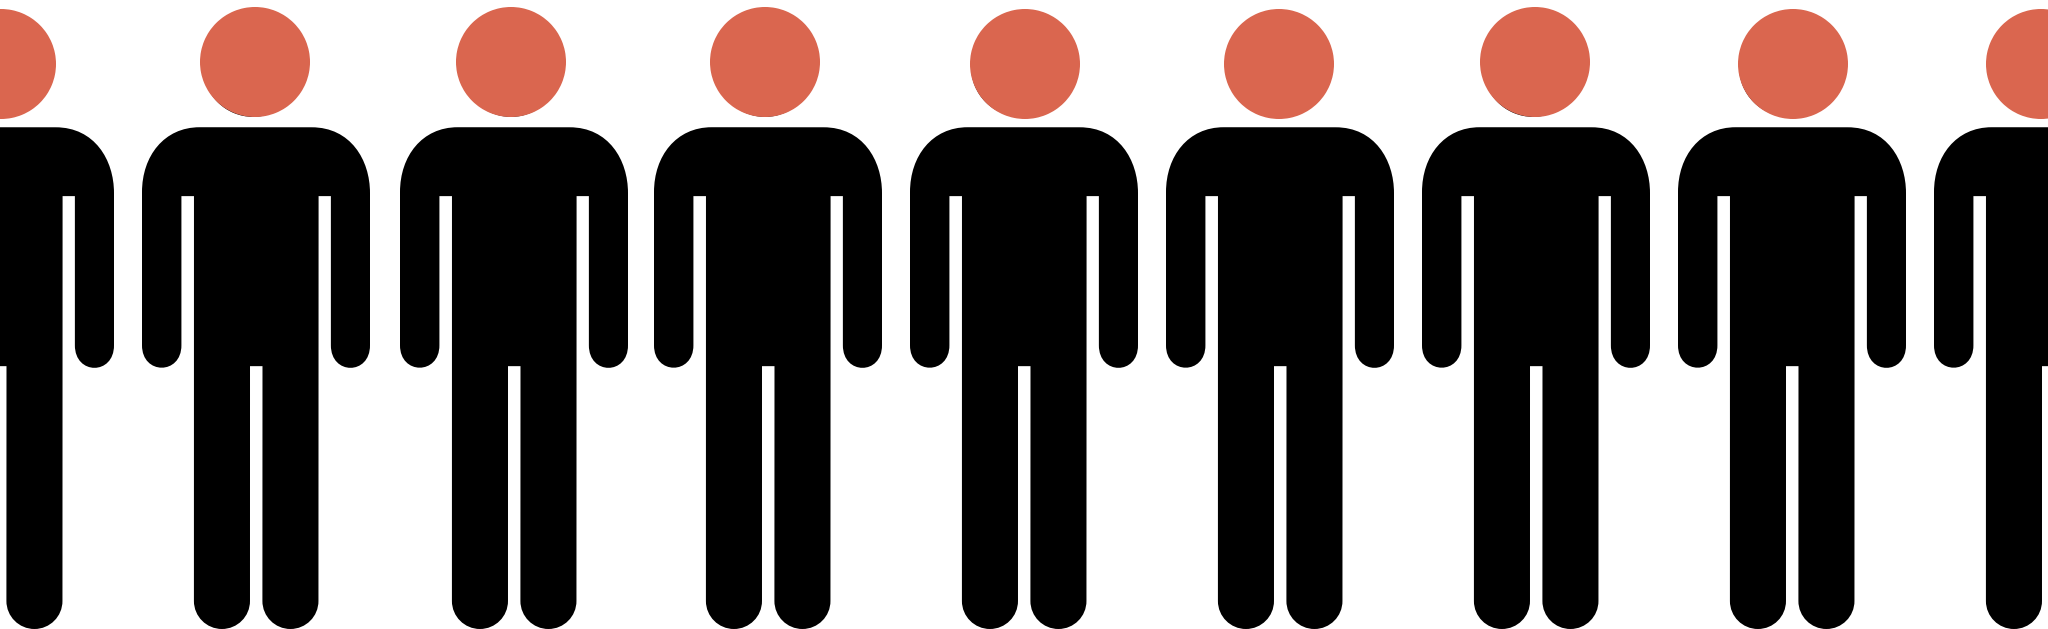

RECOVERY

We actually care, that's why we'll be around when the news coverage subsides to help finish the job! Our community partnerships help us to provide for a town's unique and specific post-storm needs. We call it a "YES FUND" because it's fun to say "YES" when we find a worthy cause.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS & PREPARATION SAVES LIVES

2017 Hurricane Irma = 144 Dead
2017 Hurricane Harvey = 88 Dead
2017 California Wildfires = 46 Dead
2018 Montecito Mudslides = 22 Dead

Many of these tragic losses could have been prevented with warning & training.

CIVILIAN RESPONSE NETWORK GOT IT DONE

90%

90% of our trucks were first in to deliver food and supplies to communities hardest hit in South-East Texas during Hurricane Harvey. Our teams have responded to 11 Major Disasters since 2017.

44 Mil

$44 Million dollars in unsolicited donations were distributed by hundreds of our organized volunteers. Our efforts to help rebuild communities continue today.

Bonded

The relationships we've made are solid, supportive and greatly valued. Disasters have a way of bonding people together and bringing out the best in each of us.

WE ARE THE 1ST WAVE OF HELP

"When it comes to how humans respond to disasters, self-organizing, community-based groups are the first line of defense in rescue and survival. It is imperative we learn more about them and how to best mobilize, coordinate, and harness their incredible and incredibly human—efforts."
Professor Richard Florida of University of Toronto

After the 1995 earthquake in Kobe, Japan, an estimated 60 to 90 percent of people trapped in the rubble of collapsed buildings were rescued by locals before emergency aid arrived.

FOR EVERY $1 DOLLAR SPENT ON DISASTER PREPAREDNESS
AN AVERAGE OF $4 DOLLARS IS SAVED
ON RESPONSE AND RECOVERY

According to the Giovanni Zambello of the Finnish Red Cross

- Hurricane Irma COST 64.76 BILLION in DAMAGES to land and property. (Still rebuilding)
- Hurricane Harvey COST 125 BILLION in DAMAGES to land and property. (Still rebuilding)
- California Wildfires COST 13.028 BILLION in DAMAGES to land and property. (Still rebuilding)
- In 2017 United States will spend over 306 BILLION in disaster-related recovery. (Too much!)

According to Forbes Magazine, a recent Gallup Poll and a study out of Harvard University reported, companies who provide volunteer opportunities in the workplace enjoy multifaceted benefits. The report states a surprisingly large return on investment when implementing volunteer programs in the workplace including:

- B. Companies save thousands per year with increased employee retention.
- C. 77% of Millennials report interest in giving community service over money & stay on job longer.
- D. Increases collaboration among team members and greatly boosts morale.

VOLUNTEERING IS THE ESSENCE OF LIFE

The Greek philosopher Aristotle once said...
The ESSENCE of LIFE is "To serve others and do good."
We agree. Helping others changes people for the better.

CONNECTED COMMUNITY ACTION PLAN

- IDENTIFY corporate partners willing and able to contribute funds, supplies and or volunteers wishing to mobilize in their communities during times of crisis.
- IMPLEMENT volunteer training programs on a large scale to prepare as many capable and empowered teams as possible pre-disaster.
- COORDINATE with companies to collect and distribute goods and dispatch volunteers needed in the affected areas post-disaster.

IT'S FUN TO SAY YES

After all the tears 2017 brought, it was fantastic to see some BIG smiles. Mayor Bruce of Sour Lake, Texas and Andy the owner of a Chick-fil-A Franchise in Lumberton, Texas, worked side by side with No Town Left Behind to provide a community celebration complete with toys for the kids! Our work supports communities long after the disaster is over.
